To whom it may concern:

It has been our pleasure to work with Kim Wade at Wade & Company, LLC on a variety of marketing related projects.

She has proven herself to be knowledgeable, resourceful and dynamic over a broad range of marketing related topics. Kim has also received high marks from our membership directors after a recent comprehensive training exercise.

We are looking forward to working with her again in the future.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Gary L. Dee". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.
